- Answering the phone, providing information regarding Sister Nora's Place services and local resources for individuals experiencing homelessness.
- Cleaning that includes but is not limited to sweeping, mopping, and making beds as needed.
- Collaborating with all members of Sister Nora's Place staff to provide individualized, trauma-informed services to our residents.
- Representing Sister Nora's Place professionally by modeling respectful, hospitable behavior toward volunteers, donors, residents, and staff at all times.
- Flexibility and willingness to cover other shifts as needed. Shifts may include day, evening, overnight, weekends and holidays.

Required Skills:

- Desire to work compassionately with women experiencing homelessness.
- Knowledge, comfort level, and ability to work with individuals experiencing crisis (e.g. mental and physical health diagnoses, substance use, domestic violence).
- Willingness and temperament to work in a fast-paced, unpredictable environment. Ability to exercise good judgment and respond with appropriate urgency to situations as they arise.
- Self-motivated with the ability to work independently under minimal supervision while maintaining strong professional boundaries.
- Being coachable and receptive to feedback pertaining to professional development.

Qualifications:

- High school Diploma or equivalent.
- Experience working with individuals experiencing homelessness or marginalized populations; Experience working in shelters a plus.

- Experience with active listening, de-escalation and crisis intervention.
- Basic computer skills with proficiency in Microsoft Office and Google Suites.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills.

Physical Requirements:

- Ability to lift up to 45 lbs.
- Ability to sit, stand, walk, bend, twist, squat, and go up and down stairs on an intermittent and sometimes continuous basis.

Other Requirements:

- Must have current COVID-19 vaccination or be willing to test regularly.
